

As a Top Workplace, we hire only the best!

Hall's Heating Air is seeking experienced HVAC Technicians to service and repair the equipment in our customer's homes. This is your opportunity to get your foot in the door at one of the best places to work in Shreveport/ Bossier. If you are an experienced HVAC Technician with excellent residential / light commercial troubleshooting skills, we want to talk with you.

In this position, you will be:

- Addressing the HVAC problem that the customer has alerted us about
- Thoroughly checking the entire HVAC system for the customer
- Listening to the customer and providing suggestions and feedback to improve their existing system
- Completing all necessary repairs
- Completing all necessary paperwork
- Continuing your education in the field by attending company sponsored training classes

The right candidate will meet the following requirements:

- You have experience troubleshooting HVAC systems
- You have a valid driver's license
- You have no DUI convictions or license suspensions within 5 years
- You can pass a drug test and a background check

About us:

We offer GREAT pay and incredible incentive Additional benefits, paid vacation and company vehicle. On Call Fee for Technical. We offer a great work environment and are committed to hiring only the best!

Call Billy Lusby Today. Office Number 318-220-9414